3. Financial Disclosure

First, list the names of proprietary entities producing health care goods or services, consumed by, or used on, patients, with the exemption of non-profit or government organizations and non-health-care related companies, with which you or your spouse/partner have, or have had, a relevant financial relationship within the past 12 months. For this purpose, we consider relevant financial relationships as financial relationships with commercial interests in any amount occurring within the past 12 months that create a conflict of interest.

Second, describe what your or your spouse/partner received (example: salary, honorarium, etc.). The American Association of Physician Specialists does NOT want to know how much you received.

Third, describe your role.

Glossary of Terms

Commercial interest – any proprietary entity producing health care goods or services, consumed by, or used on, patients, with the exemption of non-profit or government organizations and non-health-care

Financial relationship – relationships in which the individual and/or their spouse/partner benefits by receiving a salary, royalty, intellectual property rights, consulting fee, honoraria, ownership interest (e.g., stocks, stock options or other ownership interest, excluding diversified mutual funds), or other financial benefit. Financial benefits are usually associated with roles such as employment, management position, independent contractor (including contracted research), consulting, speaking and teaching, membership on advisory committees or review panels, board membership, and other activities from which remuneration is received, or expected.

Conflict of Interest – when an individual has an opportunity to affect content about products or services of a commercial interest with which he/she has a financial relationship.

Commercial Interest	Nature of Relevant Financial Relationship (include all those that apply)
	What was received	For what role?
Example: Company 'X'	Honorarium	Speaker
<input type="checkbox"/>	I do not have any relevant financial relationships with any commercial interests.
